

What is Rotary

If you are looking for the opportunity to make a difference and lend a helping hand then Rotary international is your vehicle.

Rotary International has the reputation as the world's oldest business club organisation behind it.

Since its inception, in the early 1900s more than 32,000 clubs have been created. Rotary now exists and thrives in 168 countries around the world and can boast a membership of more than 1.2 million people.

Members come from a wide range of business, professional arenas and other areas. The organisation aims to foster a world of understanding and peace through international, national and local humanitarian and cultural programs.

As a world wide organisation, goodwill is its highest agenda, along with promoting high ethical standards in all its vocations and humanitarian services.

On a local level Rotary is involved in many worthwhile causes, a commitment emphasised and highlighted by the Bunbury clubs' annual Rotary Auction which raises money for local charities, causes and youth programs.

For further information on Rotary within Australia visit www.rotary.org.au and for information on Rotary International visit www.rotary.org