

Rotary Auction Dinner

DO YOU enjoy fine dining and entertainment and love to support the community?

The Black Tie, Black Truffle Rotary Charity Ball will be held on Saturday August 14 and is sure to impress.

The event will be held at the Lord Forrest Hotel with a five course degustation menu with every course featuring truffles provided by the Wine and Truffle Co in Manjimup.

There will be four regional chefs preparing each course and there will be wines includes to complement each course.

With an additional three bands providing entertainment throughout the night &ndash; what more could you want?

The ball is a joint project by all the Rotary clubs in Bunbury with the proceeds of the night going to local charities like the Men&rsquo;s Shed.

One of the auction items is a generously donated Mercedes AMG vehicle which is sure to be a top seller.

Tickets are $100 per person for tables of 10 and early purchasers will receive an invitation to a champagne event at Coastal Automotive Mercedes showroom in Bunbury to view their exclusive range of vehicles.

By purchasing tickets early you also have the chance to win a limousine ride to the ball and arrive in style.

Tickets are available from the Bunbury Mail and Ian Robertson Optometrist on 15A Forrest Avenue, Bun-bury.

For more information phone Ian Robertson on 9721 2722.
